FAFICS PRESS RELEASE

The Federation of Associations of Former International Civil Servants (FAFICS) just ended its 46th Annual Council in which more than half of its 61 member associations located throughout the world was represented. It met in Vienna from 17-20 July and was hosted by the UN Office at Vienna (UNOV).

The Federation reviewed pension and after-service health insurance issues. It also considered matters related to ageing and in that context considered ways to address the needs of the most elderly UN retirees. The Federation heard presentations and held Q&As with the Chief Executive Officer/Secretary of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund (UNJSPF), Mr. Sergio Arvizu, and the Representative of the UN Secretary-General for the investments of the assets of the Pension Fund, Ms. Carol Boykin.

Additionally, for the first time the Chair of the UNJSPF Pension Board, Mr. Vladimir Yossifov, addressed FAFICS.
