22 October 2022

To all FAFICS Member Associations,

I hope you had a good August and that all has been well since I was last in touch following the FAFICS 52nd Council Meeting in Vienna.

You may have seen from my first President's message that I am committed to ensuring integrity, transparency and collegiality in the way FAFICS conducts its business. I reiterate my emphasis on our openness and mutual communication and FAFICS' ability to respond to your concerns as member associations.

To this end, the Communications Working Group has designed a short survey. They and I would like your support in responding to the attached survey to obtain your feedback about the last council meeting as well as get other comments and suggestions for future Council meetings and the FAFICS work programme.

If you feel that more than one responder would be beneficial, please feel free to distribute the survey among your team. We would appreciate it if you can return the completed survey form to the FAFICS Secretary on or before 15 November 2022.

I look forward to hearing from you and will share the results with the Bureau and at a future Council session.

Sincerely,

Jerry Barton, President

FAFICS
